

The state of Wisconsin no call law is stronger than the current federal law. We therefore need to keep the state law. My wife and I enjoy not having to answer the phone to listen to companies invading our privacy.